

Australian Government
Department of Immigration and Citizenship

PARTNER MIGRATION – RELATIONSHIP DETAILS

Complete this form if you are applying for a:

- Prospective marriage (subclass 300) visa
- A Partner (subclass 309/100) visa AND you have not been physically living with your partner for the 12 months immediately before you apply for the visa

AS FAR AS POSSIBLE, PLEASE ANSWER ALL QUESTIONS WITHIN THE SPACE PROVIDED.

1. When did you first meet your sponsor?

2. How and where did you first meet your sponsor?

3. When did you and your sponsor commit to a shared life together?

4. If you are married or engaged to be married, when and why did you decide to get married? If you are in a de facto relationship, when and why did you decide to live together? If you are not living together now, explain why not.

people our business

Australian Embassy, Berlin

Wallstrasse 76-79, D-10179 Berlin, Germany •

The Embassy's Website in Germany: www.germany.embassy.gov.au • The DIAC Website in Australia: www.immi.gov.au

5. List the periods of time you have spent together and the times that you have spent apart, since you first met your sponsor.

6. Please explain how you kept in contact with your sponsor during the times that you have been apart in your relationship.

7. Please explain to what extent you have already combined your personal affairs, for example, in relation to your finances or your accommodation.

Name (please print clearly)

Signature

Date

Please include as evidence of your relationship the following documentation:

1. A sample of photographs showing you and your sponsor together at various occasions. Please do not send us more than ten.
2. If you have lived together, provide evidence. (For example, a joint rental agreement, joint local authority registration under the same address, utility bills appearing in joint names, etc.)
3. Evidence of contact during times of separation. (For example, itemised telephone bills, printouts of your e-mail inbox folder, envelopes which contained your personal correspondence, etc.)
4. Evidence of joint travel and social activities. (For example, club memberships at the same club, boarding passes showing joint travel, joint invitations to celebrations, etc.)

people our business

Australian Embassy, Berlin